

IT'S TIME FOR A CUTENESS OVERLOAD AND AN OVERFLOW OF WINNINGS WITH MASCOT GAMING'S NEW CRASH GAME, 'CRASH, HAMSTER, CRASH!'

*Bet on hamsters, in the game they dash,
Before the crash comes, grab your cash.*

Mascot Gaming is expanding its portfolio with their second crash game. 'Crash, Hamster, Crash!' is sure to capture your attention. Set in a beautiful and peaceful environment, lush green meadows unfold beneath towering trees, with majestic mountains rising in the distance under a pristine blue sky. Yet, amid this idyllic scene, there's an unexpected twist – three adorable hamsters are caught in the beam of a UFO!

Each hamster represents a bet, allowing players to place from one to three bets simultaneously. The essence of any crash game is to secure your winnings before the bet crashes.

Volatility

x5000

Max Win

HTML 5

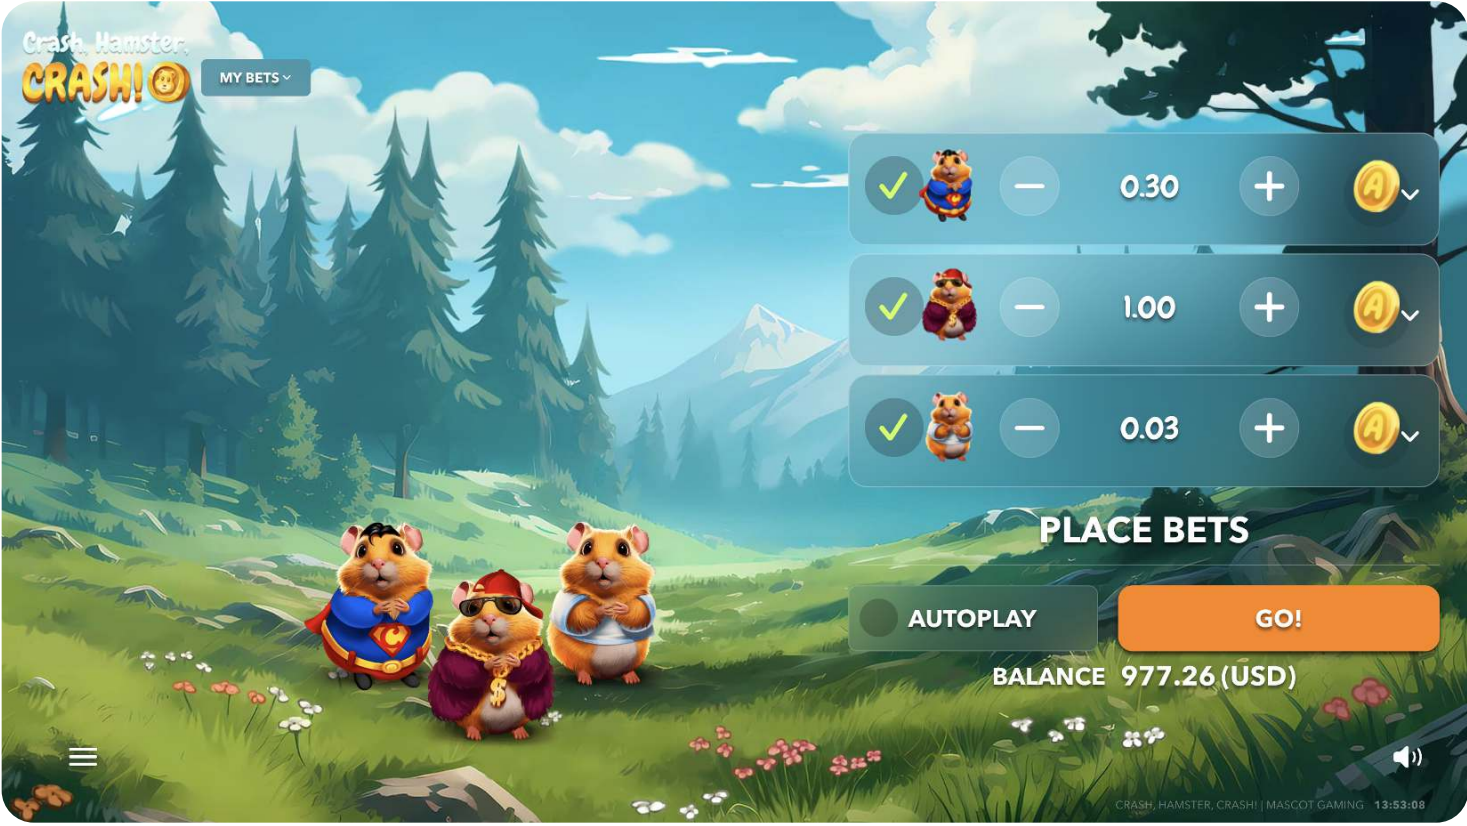

The increase in the win multiplier may halt unexpectedly, and if players have not collected their winnings by this point, the bet will be deemed lost. The maximum multiplier achievable is x5000, granting players complete control over both the commencement and conclusion of the game. Additionally, when players adjust their bet amount, the hamster's outfit will also change, adding a delightful visual element to the gameplay.

Margarita Malysheva, Head of Marketing at Mascot Gaming, shared her thoughts:

«We are thrilled to unveil our second crash game. Let me assure you - it's absolutely adorable, it's funny, and it's undeniably thrilling. 'Crash, Hamster, Crash!' is designed to captivate and entertain players of all levels.»
