GAME MECHANICS

At the center of Zeus: Titan Fury is a progression loop built around the Hold and Win Bonus with Jackpots, Collect mechanics, and the Nudge Feature, a new mechanic in Mascot Gaming's portfolio.

Wild symbols strengthen winning combinations and can appear on reels 2, 3, and 4. When a Wild lands partially on the screen, the Nudge Feature moves the reel until the full Wild is visible, increasing the Wild multiplier with every nudge. This adds a clear sense of growth before the win is awarded.

The Collect mechanic adds regular activity through Coin symbols. Coins may display fixed reward values or Mini and Major Jackpot prizes, while Collect symbols gather these rewards and add them to the current win when they appear together.

The main goal is the Hold and Win Bonus, triggered by six or more Coin symbols. The feature starts with 3 respins, with all Coin symbols locked in place. Every new Coin resets the respin counter, giving players more chances to fill the reels and continue the bonus round. If the screen is filled with Coin symbols, the Grand Jackpot is awarded.

Risk and Buy gives players additional choice. The Buy option opens direct access to the Hold and Win Bonus with starting locked Coins, while the Risk Wheel offers a chance to increase the current win with a multiplier.

DESIGN

Zeus: Titan Fury takes the power of Olympus as its visual foundation. Golden temples, stormy skies, divine symbols, and the commanding image of Zeus create a setting that feels familiar from the first glance and works well for a broad audience.

The design supports the game's core feeling of accumulated power. The result is a slot where the visual rhythm follows the mechanics: every feature looks like another step toward a stronger outcome.

Margarita Malysheva, Head of Marketing at Mascot Gaming:

"Zeus: Titan Fury is designed for players who enjoy seeing progress throughout the session. The mechanics are easy to understand, while the mythological theme and jackpot potential make the release a strong fit for operators looking for broad appeal and steady engagement."
