GAME MECHANICS

Huntress vs Baba Yaga runs on three connected mechanics: Rockways, Rockfall, and a climbing win multiplier.

Each spin sets a new number of ways to win, ranging up to 117,649. Any win triggers Rockfall: the winning symbols are removed and replaced with new ones, and the feature continues until no further win lands. Each Rockfall pushes the multiplier a step higher, from x1 up to x10 in the base game.

Landing 4 or more Scatters triggers 12 Free Spins, where the multiplier ladder runs from x2 up to x25, letting a strong cascade sequence carry far more weight than in the base game. Landing more Scatters during Free Spins retriggers the feature, adding 12 more spins to the session.

Players have two ways to shape their own session: the Buy Feature, which opens 12 Free Spins directly, and the Risk Wheel, which lets them gamble a win for a chance to multiply it by up to x1000.

DESIGN

Huntress vs Baba Yaga is set deep in a birch forest at dusk, where the theme's two central figures face off: a huntress with a drawn blade, and Baba Yaga in her hut on legs. Her mortar, pestle and broom, along with the horned forest spirits keeping watch among the trees, build out the folklore setting around them. The soundtrack fits the game's atmosphere and pace throughout the base game and Free Spins.

Margarita Malysheva, Head of Marketing at Mascot Gaming:

> "Huntress vs Baba Yaga is a high impact title with a strong streaming appeal. Long cascade runs make for spectacular moments, and it's an easy fit for operators building out their high-volatility segment."
